CHARACTER SIDES

NARRATOR 1:

If you are watching this video, you have successfully made it to one of our “Positively RESET CENTERS” for safety and training purposes. Please ensure that the bulkhead doors are completely closed behind you, and if there are ANY signs of Villains, proceed to the closest SEEKERZ beacon, and sound the alarm.

NARRATOR 2:

As you know, when the wormholes to another dimension opened in Las Vegas in the summer of 2026, Disney & Movie Villains invaded our communities, lead by Hades and Ursula, in search of our Poor Unfortunate Souls. The Villains had learned that Las Vegas youth were suffering from feelings of unworthiness and low self-esteem, making them especially susceptible to the Villains soul-sucking grasp.

NARRATOR 3:

Naturally, our State Leaders reached out to Huntrix, The K-Pop Demon Hunters, and though they were busy with the Saja Boys resurgence, they were able to train a NEW K-Pop group with the help of a local organization called Positively Arts, whose mission is to uplift and empower young souls.

NARRATOR 4:

Together, Huntrix & Positively Arts created a K-Pop Villain Hunter group called “SEEKERZ” whose mission is to destroy the villains while trying to rebuild the confidence of our local youth, and save our community from these soul-sucking villains. Together with the “MINI SEEKERZ” our younger K-Pop Villain Hunter group, the “SEEKERZ” are here to protect and train us.

NARRATOR 5:

Be careful out there. Your RESET handbooks and practices can be found on the bookshelves around you, and a RESET training guide has been notified of your arrival, and will be on the premises shortly to begin your RESET training.

HADES VILLAIN:

(to be sung a capella to the first part of the chorus of "Defying Gravity")

You cannot HIDE. You are not good enough. You should just CRY. You are not good enough...and I will get your SOULS!!!

(laughing) You silly little children. You can't stop us. No one can. Just give up on your dreams already and let us take you to the Underworld. It's so much easier there. You don't have to practice. You don't have to warm up. You don't have to audition for anything. You can just watch other people and judge them! It's so much fun! (laughing even harder)

GIRL 1:

That's the whole point, in their last battle with Elphaba, the SEEKERZ said they discovered something... something BIG, and they created these shelters to train and show us how to defeat the villains ourselves!

(Boy interjects with a negative response)

GIRL 1 (cont.) Don't say that! You know the villains can find us when you talk like that! You all have to STOP or else they'll...(audible GASP)

BOY 1:

I don't buy it! We need the SEEKERZ here now. Those moves, their voices, they're just so PERFECT! I wanna be like them. Why can't I be that perfect? I'M TERRIBLE and I'll never be good enough!

(He reacts to a loud thunder clap)

What was that?! What happened to the lights?! Who was the last one in? Did you close the bulkhead doors??

LEX LUTHOR:

Everyone STOP what you're doing and get ready to be afraid. Be VERY afraid.

(He pulls out a large green crystal from his bag. He looks at it intensely)

(Seemingly annoyed). No! It's not part of the Emerald City! It's...(speaks slowly and sinisterly) Kryp-to-nite! (devilish laugh).

(Pauses...Annoyed again). No! Not crypto-CURRENCY, Krypto-NITE! You know...the thing that kills SUPER-man?? And I'm Lex LUTHOR! (devilish laugh).

(Pauses...Even more annoyed). No! I'm not Lutheran, I'm a LUTHOR...like, that's my name? Ugh. You're missing the point here. I'm not afraid to use this!

(Pauses...Impatiently yelling). No! I'm not gonna throw it at you, it's Kryptonite! It'll do it's Kryptonion thingy and...um...you'll all be really scared and stuff, and then I...um... take your...uh...souls and stuff? Ugh. Never mind. I'll be back!

URSULA:

(teasing and playful) Hades, Hades, Hades...you POOR...unfortunate soul. Did those scary little SEEKERZ ruin your soul-sucking adventure this evening?? (suddenly angry) I KNEW I should've sent Jimmy Crystal to take care of them! That WOLF knows how to terrorize the SHEEP! (suddenly playful again) Ohhhhhh, shush shush shush, my little fiery friend from the Underworld, I'm just pulling your tentacles. I'm SURE it was difficult to attack the SEEKERZ on their OWN surf and turf. We need to draw them out into the OPEN...when their guards are down...and when they LEAST expect it. (laughing sinisterly).

JIMMY CRYSTAL:

Girls, girls, girls...don't lose your little HEADS over this misunderstanding. I'm SURE you'll be ready in time to debut your new little tricks to the public. But...can I just make ONE LITTLE suggestion? Why are we changing up the act now?? It's been working so well. Everybody was happy being in the dark, not having to WORRY about losing their souls and stuff. You know what they say, "D Students are Happy Students" - Let's not bother them with this whole "TRUTH" thing, whaddaya say?

SEEKERZ 1- SANA:

She's right! It's filled with all the miserable souls who gave up on their dreams and just want to drag everyone down with them! You cannot give up on yourself. I'm so sorry you're not feeling strong at this moment, but we promise you that if you just take the time to...

The SEEKERZ BEACON is heard in the distance

I promise you all, it'll all become clear once we have time to explain.

I'm sorry. We'll be back as soon as we can.
